

Introducing the Question Bank

A “Question Bank” is a collection of all the questions that students should expect at course exams. Question Banks help students to better prepare for any test they are required to sit for. Question Banks are regularly updated and students are expected to access them once a week to check for any newly added questions.

